MISSIONPOINT CAPITAL PARTNERS

invests in growth-stage companies providing cleaner energy solutions. Its principals have accumulated decades of collective experience at some of the world's most respected companies including Goldman Sachs, General Electric, Lehman Brothers, Citibank and Swiss Re. MissionPoint provides "catalytic capital" to enterprises headquartered in North America and the European Union that have the potential to grow revenues and earnings at exceptional rates.

A CHANGING ENERGY WORLD. At MissionPoint, we believe that the world's transition to a low-carbon economy is creating strong and enduring demand for cleaner energy solutions. A number of reinforcing macro factors are also at play, including:

- Growing global power requirements
- Increased energy price volatility
- Intensifying worldwide policy stimulus
- Emergent environmental finance markets
- Improving economics of alternative technologies
- Electricity market restructuring

Businesses that are scaling up to meet, and profit from, these new economic and environmental circumstances can significantly benefit from MissionPoint's value-added investment style.
